

Diana Štěpničková Designer and illustrator

I am Diana.

Graphic designer, illustrator, and mediocre ukulele player based in Kutná Hora.

With my front-end developer husband and our 1 year old son we live in the beautiful historical city of Kutná Hora right next to a river and a deciduous forest.

At this moment it is my third year studying graphic design program in the college of creative communication.

I have working experience in illustration, web design, print design and visual identity.
